

TIME FLIES WHEN YOU'RE BUILDING COMMUNITY.

And oh, what a community we've built here in Summerville, SC. One with over 120 places to shop, eat and office. Acres of open space, miles of trails and winding waterways that encourage exploration and relaxation. Parks that are anything but standard. And an unrivaled sense of community spirit.

And we haven't even gotten to the homes yet—over 2,000 of them, all capturing lowcountry charm and front-porch friendliness. (Awards like being named "Best Master-Planned Community in the U.S." are the very nice cherry on top.

And as great as Nexton is now, there's more to come in the next ten years (and beyond). Because the way we see it, the best communities are the ones that keep getting better over time.
