

HOW 'BOU ABOUT SOME HEALTH WITH THAT HOME?

Healthy living has always been a core value at Nexton. One-third of our land is protected (hello, woody trail walks). And over 50 unique parks keep the kids romping and the dogs fetching. But beyond all the get-your-heart-pumping green spaces, pools and sport courts, you'll find a healthy sense of belonging too. Thanks to community-nurturing places and events, Nexton promotes easy social connection — a proven contributor to wellness and longevity.

HIGH THRIVE

TOURING NEW MODEL HOMES NEVER SOUNDED SO GOOD

Consider it a twofer. Not only will you get a sneak peek of two new model homes under construction, you'll get a first taste of Nexton's healthy community life. Come explore Model Row, then mix it up with the locals as we gather for live music by Lauren Hall, yummy food trucks and more.

PARTY PARTICULARS

NEW! STANLEY MARTIN TOWNHOMES

Early next year our newest builder, Stanley Martin, brings their city-loving, three-story townhomes to Brighton Park. Modern, spacious and priced from the low $400s, these townhomes will put you down the street from yoga at HYLO Fitness, smoothies at The Bomb Bar and daycare at Goddard School, and right next door to Go Dog's four-legged daycare with bar (for you, of course). Cheers to walkable, healthy living at Nexton.
